

In a single, and very specific statement, can you express why you want to work in public health (100 words)?

The vision of the School of Public Health is: “To lead positive change in the public’s health and wellbeing, through world class education, research and engagement.” Considering this vision, why do you want to study the Master of Public Health (Practice) at Curtin University and what makes you a suitable applicant (100 words)?

What will be your contribution to the field of Public Health (100 words)?