Important Information

The following Nursing and Midwifery programs offered at Curtin University, Australia, are accredited by the Australian Nursing and Midwifery Accreditation Council (ANMAC). To ensure graduates are eligible for professional registration, the University upholds the English language proficiency standards set by the Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia \(NMBA\).

In addition to satisfying ANMAC English requirements, all applicants must also satisfy Curtin University's course English standard requirement for Nursing and Midwifery courses.

Declaration

In accordance with ANMAC standards, all applicants must complete the following declaration.

1) I declare (please select from one of the following 2 options):

English is my *primary language and by course commencement and I have attended and satisfactorily completed at least six years of primary and secondary education (including at least two years between years 7 and 12) taught and assessed solely in English, in:
